Pro2Serve Promotes Baker-Wallace to Senior VP of Programs

Oak Ridge, Tennessee, January 2008 – Pro2Serve Professional Project Services, Inc. (Pro2Serve) has promoted Lorie Baker-Wallace to Senior Vice President of Programs. She will be responsible for maximizing contract performance and sales through leading Pro2Serve’s customer satisfaction, project management, quality, health and safety, security, and training programs.

Ms. Baker-Wallace joined Pro2Serve in 2005 to lead business development operations. She has most recently served as Vice President and Technical Services Manager. In announcing Ms. Baker-Wallace’s corporate appointment as Senior Vice President, Pro2Serve’s founder and Chairman, Dr. Barry Goss, stated that “It is a pleasure to have someone of Lorie’s caliber lead the program support activities critical to achieving excellence in providing critical infrastructure engineering services to our national security clients.”

Ms. Baker-Wallace has 20 years of experience as an operations manager, project manager, proposal manager, technical lead, and hydrogeologist for technical and engineering services firms. Her technical experience includes environmental and related projects for both federal and commercial clients, including large, complex investigations and remedial actions. She has managed competitive proposals for contract values over a billion dollars.

Pro2Serve (www.pro2serve.com) is a nationally-recognized technical and engineering services firm dedicated to providing critical infrastructure engineering services that support our Nation’s security. Pro2Serve provides innovative solutions to government and private industry on critical security, defense, facilities and infrastructure, nuclear nonproliferation, and environmental projects. Engineering News-Record named Pro2Serve as the 242nd largest design firm and the 15th largest manufacturing design firm in the nation for 2006. It was the only East Tennessee headquartered firm to make the list. Pro2Serve is also a two-time alumnus of the Inc. 500, a listing of the 500 fastest growing privately held companies in the United States. In addition to Tennessee, Pro2Serve has offices in Texas, New Mexico, Nevada, Washington, D.C, and Ohio.
